

ANNUAL GAD ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT
FY 2010

Provincial Veterinary Office

Program/Activity/Project (1)	Gender Issue (2)	GAD Activity (3)	Results (4)	Cost (5)	Remarks (6)
Animal Products Utilization	Livelihood Unemployment	Meat Processing Demo	21 demos	P1,200.00/demo = P25,000.00	We conducted these demos to women's groups, homemakers, Out of School Youth's, displaced workers & senior citizens. It was noted that they were interested to put up their own business but they lack the necessary capital.
Animal Production * Animal Dispersal Project	Livelihood Unemployment Malnutrition	Free-range Chicken Dispersal	3698 heads free-range chicken 1849 beneficiaries	In kind (from Department of Agriculture, Regional Field Unit IV-A	One (1) pair of free-range chicken was given to each beneficiary (women's groups, homemakers, out of school youth's, displaced workers & senior citizens) for chicken and egg production. This project were undertaken partly to address gender issues of livelihood, unemployment & malnutrition.

Prepared by:

Approved by:

Date:

Catherine A. Gorospe, DVM

REYNALDO L. BONITA, DVM
Provincial Veterinarian

28 January 2011